

Why do teachers use edmodo?*

Edmodo saves time!

- No need to remember email addresses
- Compatible with smart phones
- Communication tool when I am out sick

Edmodo simplifies my life.

- Files, links, videos, websites are easily organized and accessed in the library.
- Google Docs imports into the library
- Electronic assignments are in one location
- May replace teacher website

Edmodo is a safe and secure environment

- Can make small groups for specific conversations
- Teaches students how to be responsible digital citizens

It is free!

The screenshot shows the Edmodo Teacher Landing Page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'edmodo', 'Calendar', 'Grades', 'Library', 'Mr. Roosevelt', and 'Settings'. Below the navigation bar is a profile picture of a man and a text input field for a note. The note input field has a placeholder 'type your note here...' and options to attach 'File', 'Link', and 'Library'. Below the note input field is a 'Send' button and a tag 'Social Studies'. The main content area is titled 'Social Studies' and shows a post by 'ThomJefferson I. to Social Studies'. The post text reads: 'Dear Students of Mr. Roosevelt. I beseech you! Please help me rewrite the Declaration of Independence in terms you modern youngsters may understand. I am sharing with you some thoughts on the declaration. Please view this moving picture (then explain to me how you make this magic work!) – and submit your revised document below for all to view. Start with the first sentence. Each student must submit one revised sentence. Be careful to review the last comment above so you don't repeat! To the stockade for those who don't make t...'. Below the text is a 'Show Full Post' button and a video player for 'Understanding the Declaration of Independence' from youtube.com. The post is dated 'Mar 25, 2011' and has a reply from 'Me' that says 'Thank you Mr. Jefferson! I'll get started....with a rewrite of the first sentence (When in the course of Human Events...'. Below the reply is a quote: '"When a group of people decide that it's time to break away from their government and start one of their own, it's common courtesy to explain why."'.

Tuck Everlasting: Chapter 10 Homework

 Turned in (2) DUE: Mar 29, 2011

Create a card and write a letter to Winnie and give advice on how to handle the problem she is facing in the story of whether she should tell about the spring or keep it a secret.

Provide at least three facts to defend your advice, and use proper Friendly Letter guidelines.

 Mr. Roosevelt: Here is my letter. I hope you like it. I told Winnie she shouldn't drink from the spring.

Comments

 Me - Jamie:

Great job on letter structure and complete sentences. I think you need to reread the directions though -- the directions asked you to decide if Winnie should tell family about the spring, not if she should drink from the spring.

you turned it in early - I'll give you another shot!

Students can only join groups, they cannot create them

Students can only send messages to the entire group or directly to the teacher

Best Practices for Safe Networking

- ▶ Encourage students to create their own accounts to ensure password safety
- ▶ After all students join your group, lock the group code to prevent others from joining
- ▶ Monitor group membership to ensure only students in your group have joined
- ▶ Educate students on proper online etiquette
- ▶ Use “Read-Only” status to curb inappropriate behavior

Best Practices for Digital Citizenship

Be present. Participate in classroom discussions and contribute your unique voice to the conversation.

Use appropriate grammar instead of texting language.

Use a respectful tone of voice when posting. Refrain from posts that tease, bully, annoy, spam, or gossip.

Keep conversations on topic.

Keep private information private. This includes telephone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.

Be sure to get permission before posting photos or videos showing yourself or classmates.

Show what you know! If you've found information or have an idea that's related to our classwork, share it on Edmodo.
